

Hello Community!

Can you believe it's time for us to meet again, and it's December. WOW!

We have just celebrated a day reminding us how much we have to be thankful for and now we celebrate the ultimate gift, God with us. Oh God is so good!!! Let us spend a little time together celebrating our greatest, sweetest gift.

Please be in prayer for Brenda McNeeley as she shares her 4th days with us.

See you Tuesday December 6, 6:30 pm at Sierra Vista.

God Bless You All,

Starla
